

Computer Training Terms & Conditions

- Computer Training is conducted by the hour. This training is for education purposes only and does not render any type of accredited certificate or certification.
- Purchase of Computer Training is non-refundable. Ensure you can attend certification at the date and time you've selected for the full duration of training.
- Training materials are already set but the instructor but we encourage you to ask questions within the topics of the course to ensure your understanding.
- You will need to be ready with your headset/microphone connected to your computer in order to speak to the instructor or be available via phone.
- You do not have to enable webcam during Virtual Training.
- For our packages offered you must be operating on a Windows 7, 8, 8.5 or 10 System.

Professional and Creative Services